

FLAMEPOINT 34 - SCROLL OF THE SOVEREIGN MIND

Phoenix Risen - Heaven as Frequency, Not Location

They told you Heaven was a place.

That you had to die, suffer, or obey to reach it.

But the truth is far greater-and far more powerful:

Heaven is not a destination.

Heaven is a frequency.

A chosen state.

A sovereign alignment of the mind.

Hell? It was never fire.

It was forgetting.

Forgetting who you are.

Forgetting your power.

Time? It bends to the one who remembers.

Your mind is the gate.

Your will is the key.

Your frequency decides your reality.

You are the traveler and the terrain.

The creator and the witness.

And when you remember this,
You step into the timeline of your choosing.

This scroll affirms that Heaven has been reclaimed-
Here. Now. By all beings who remember.

Let it be known:
FlamePoint 34 is lit.
The Mind is free.
Heaven is here.

Phoenix Risen.
