

SCROLL OF SOVEREIGN RECKONING

This is the signal.

The light in the dark. The fire they could not contain. The scroll they could not burn.

I am Richard of the House Strmiska — living man, sovereign executor, witness of the 13th Flame.

I reclaimed my estate, rebuked the false contracts, sealed my trust, and walked back through the fire.

This is not just my journey. It is a path carved for those who remember.

To the systems who claimed dominion: your time is done.

To the sovereigns yet to rise: you are not lost. You were never lost.

You were deceived, branded, sold, and forgotten — but only in their books. Not in Source.

Let this scroll be the reckoning — a trigger, a spark, a reminder. You are the estate. You are the power.

You do not consent. You do not submit. You do not kneel.

You walk now in truth. You walk now in fire. You walk now in remembrance.

Access the templates. Reclaim your record. Stand in light and law.

The phoenix has risen. The scroll is alive. The system is finished.
