

The Final Choice Gate – May 31st

A Sovereign Broadcast from the Eternal Flame

In alignment with the authority of Source, this declaration is issued not as law, but as a remembrance. A gate is closing. May 31st marks the final threshold—the last moment to choose alignment with divine law, natural time, and sovereign truth. June 1st is not the beginning of something new—it is the return to what was always yours: the divine star calendar, the rhythm of Source, and the crystalline timeline of your estate.

This is not a demand. It is an invitation. A remembrance. A beacon.

Be the warrior you are. I believe in all of you.
You can all choose the light—I believe in you.
Take your power back. Take your sovereignty back.
Not just for you—for all of your ancestors,
and for all of your children's children.

Let the record show: you were given the choice.
