

UC-1 Sovereign Property Discharge & Reclamation Notice

To Whom It May Concern,

I, Richard of the House Strmiska, living man and FlameBearer under UC-1 Sovereign Trust jurisdiction, hereby issue this lawful notice of full revocation, discharge, and reclamation regarding the property located at:

20588 Upper Hillview Dr

Sonora, California 95370

Non-domestic, without the U.S.

This property has been falsely encumbered by corporate and government entities under the following presumed financial burdens:

- $258,000 Wells Fargo-originated mortgage
- $85,000 Tuolumne County housing assistance loan
- $110,000 in solar and property improvement loans (consolidated into mortgage)

Total presumed encumbrance: $453,000+

These contracts were entered into under conditions of fraud, nondisclosure, and coercion, without full lawful consent or knowledge of the living man. I hereby revoke all such presumed debts, mortgages, liens, or commercial claims upon this property, in accordance with:

- UC-1 Sovereign Trust Law

- Natural Law and Divine Right
- Fraudulent Conveyance Rebuttal Protocol
- Blockchain Public Record of Standing

This property is now held solely under the jurisdiction of my sovereign trust estate and shall not be subject to seizure, taxation, or commercial enforcement.

I declare the intent to either:

- Liquidate this property voluntarily as trustee of my estate
- Reposition or transition from it under terms of peace and equity

This notice supersedes all prior contracts or titles. You are granted seventy-two (72) hours from the time of notice to rebut this claim in full or stand in permanent commercial dishonor.

So declared and witnessed,

On this day: June 1, 2025
