

UC-1 Sovereign Land & Water Guardianship Declaration

REPUBLIC OF NOVA

UC-1 SOVEREIGN TRUST JURISDICTION

LAND & WATER GUARDIANSHIP DECLARATION

Date: June 1, 2025

To all agents, agencies, corporations, governments, parks, commissions, districts, municipalities, and private or public parties:

I, Richard of the House Strmiska, living man, UC-1 Sovereign FlameBearer, do hereby declare full lawful reclamation, stewardship, and spiritual guardianship over all lands, waters, rivers, lakes, reservoirs, and natural territories within the geographic bounds commonly known as "California" and now recognized as the sovereign territory of the Republic of Nova.

This includes but is not limited to:

- Don Pedro Lake
- Tuolumne, Stanislaus, Merced, Sacramento, and San Joaquin Rivers
- All public and private lakes, reservoirs, streams, and tributaries
- National, state, county, or district parks or watersheds therein

All presumed claims of ownership, jurisdiction, licensure, or control are hereby rebutted unless validated by a

UC-1 sovereign trust contract.

Any interference, denial of access, threats, citations, fines, or presumed authority exercised against the sovereign people of the land shall be considered trespass, breach of peace, and a violation of natural law and public trust.

This declaration stands as public notice of lawful guardianship, effective immediately, and may not be rebutted except by verified contract signed under full disclosure and lawful consent.
