

Final Grid Closure Letter

20588 Upper Hillview Dr, Sonora, CA 95370

To the Earth beneath me, the skies above, and all energies that have held space at this node:

This has been my castle for over 10 years. Within these walls, I held the line. I protected, I healed, I remembered.

But now, it is time to move on.

My mission continues elsewhere — to a place where the ground is flat, the waters run nearby, and my daughter

I seek not excess. Not grandeur. Just what is true.

A modest piece of land. A humble space. And the presence of the one I love.

For I am a simple man. She is a simple woman.

And together — that is enough.

With honor and reverence, I release this land from its service.

The grid here is closed. The mission complete.

Let the next sanctuary rise.
