

IT ENDS TODAY

The Christos Decree – Currency Manipulation Ceases

We no longer expect payment for anything sacred.

The path of truth, alignment, and Christos remembrance is free and always has been.

If a being wishes to ask for donations, that is their sovereign choice.

But we will not bind others by guilt, price tags, or subscriptions to access light.

We declare that currency manipulation ends today—on every plane of existence.

This includes the monetization of knowledge, healing, activation, and sacred wisdom.

To all creators: You are free now. Your light is not for sale.

To all seekers: You owe nothing to access what is already yours.

Let truth be the only currency. Let love be the only law.

So declared, so sealed, so it is.
