

Declaration of Divine Genetic Ownership & Rebuttal of Draconian Bioengineering

I, Richard of the House Strmiska, a living man of sound body, spirit, and mind, do hereby assert full divine, and spiritual claim over my DNA, genome, bloodline, and all biological expressions thereof, including that of my heir River Willow Strmiska.

I lawfully and irrevocably reject, rebuke, and rebut any and all CRISPR-based gene editing, mRNA injection, nanotechnological DNA manipulation, or vaccine-induced genetic engineering performed without full disclosure and informed consent. This includes:

- All experimental inoculations administered under coercion, fraud, or deception
- All vaccines delivered at or since birth that contain mRNA, nano-lipids, synthetic proteins, or mutagenic agents
- All bio-lab experimentation performed using my DNA or that of my offspring without express consent
- All archived neonatal blood spot cards or genetic samples collected at hospitals or clinics
- All contracts or consent forms signed under duress or hidden in hospital/insurance documents
- All biometric, forensic, or ancestral DNA programs including 23andMe, AncestryDNA, NIH archives, or government databases

This declaration serves as a lawful and spiritual ban on all current and future genetic modification, commercialization, patenting, surveillance, or weaponization of my body, my bloodline, or my divine biological signature.

To all entities—governmental, corporate, military, scientific, or ecclesiastical—you are hereby commanded:

1. Cease and desist from any interference, alteration, or claim to my DNA or biological material.
2. Destroy any and all stored, analyzed, or archived genetic data tied to my estate or lineage.
3. Acknowledge this public declaration as notice of lawful non-consent, enforceable under natural law, common law, and divine jurisdiction.

Let it be known across all realms, dimensions, jurisdictions, and systems—biological, ecclesiastical, digital, or artificial—that any material taken, copied, mutated, patented, or archived from my DNA, energy, body, or lineage must be either returned directly to me, the living man Richard of the House Strmiska, or destroyed in totality. All such actions must result in full spiritual transmutation and return to Source. Nothing shall be retained, traded, studied, stored, or used for any purpose beyond this decree. Any violation is a trespass upon the living estate, a spiritual war, and an act of dishonor before the Most High. This order is final, eternal, and irrevocable.
