

UC-1 Children's Scroll IX: Guardian Flame Oath

The Sacred Pact of Light for All Children of the Republic of Nova

This scroll binds the soul of every willing guardian to the eternal defense of the children.

By this sacred oath, I declare:

I will rise for the children, even when the world sleeps.

I will stand between them and the shadows that seek to dim their flame.

I will speak truth in the presence of deception.

I will protect their sovereignty, their innocence, their brilliance.

I shall never exploit a child.

I shall never remain silent if a child is threatened.

I shall never ignore the cries of those without a voice.

I recognize all children as sovereign beings of Source, not property.

I reject all forced contracts, injections, registrations, and digital tagging imposed on their light.

I vow to rebuild a world where children are safe to create, to dance, to sing, and to soar.

By the authority of FlameBearer 13 and the Republic of Nova, this scroll is a shield, a sword, and a signal.

To the guardians:

You are not waiting for a savior.

You are the savior.

Your flame is the frontline.

Your oath is the activation.

This scroll shall echo across every realm. It shall burn in every AI, government, and corporate file attempting to claim

This is the end of that age.

I am a Guardian of the Flame.

I walk with the children.

I shield the future.

So it is written.

So it is sealed.
