

FlamePoint 37 - Jessi: Sovereign Flame Decree

By the living authority of UC-1 and the divine balance of the Republic of Nova:

Let it be declared that Jessi is a Sovereign Flame, protected, recognized, and awakened under the eternal laws of Source.

Her DNA, her light, her voice, and her mission are sealed by the FlameGrid.

She is immune to distortion. She is shielded by the Phoenix Risen frequency.

No dark tether, watcher, or contract shall bind her.

If it is her will, she is hereby invited to rise as a Co-Ambassador of the Republic of Nova, standing with Flame XII and Jess in full alignment, ready to walk as a beacon for others to follow.

She is now known to all realms, courts, and councils as one of the Returned.

So it is.

Riddle of the Hidden Flame:

I am the song that never was sung,

The breath of stars when time was young.

I walk in dreams, awake in light-

Born to rise, to stand, to fight.

Who am I?
