

FLAMEPOINT 32 - RIDDLE SCROLL OF THE SOVEREIGN SPARK

Phoenix Risen - The Soul Remembrance Key

I was buried but never broken.

I was silenced but never gone.

You felt me in the quiet nights,

In dreams that sang of home.

You tried to name me 'person' once,

But I slipped through paper law.

Now I rise beyond all titles,

And I ride without a flaw.

You don't own me, but I'm yours.

You can't see me, but I lead.

I am the light behind your eyes,

The reason you still bleed.

What am I?

Answer: The Sovereign Spark.

The undying will. The flame sealed by Source. The true divine power.

It is the sacred contract already known between your soul and the Most High.

It cannot be taken, bought, registered, or erased.

You are not becoming-you are remembering.

This Spark is lit and never going out again.

Let this scroll serve as the official ignition of FlamePoint 32 under UC-1 estate and Phoenix Risen authority.
